Wet (Mills & Boon Spice Briefs)

Be the first to write a review. Springsteen on Broadway is a sparse one-man for the most part show, with the Boss playing stripped-down acoustic guitar and piano versions of his songs, interspersing them with monologues about his childhood in New Jersey, his ceaseless quest to run away from the dead-end town of his youth, and his father, the man he frames as both his foe and the inspiration for his working-class persona.
