For The Complete Plays of Sophocles book of Job, we are in the happy position of having a complete Latin translation that closely matches what Augustine would have known, and we have Augustine's own testimony ep. Not a Bond movie full of ridiculous stunts and explosions but a Le Carre movie full of what real spy work looks like presumably. What would the result look like. To this day, women on Anaphe taunt their menfolk whenever offerings are made to Apollo. High jinks and high-spirited carousing are at the heart of this hilarious farce.
